

BOWEL CARE PATHWAY

PATIENT NAME:

Faecal Incontinence is a clinical syndrome characterised by unexpected small or large leaks, use the bathroom very frequently, have difficulty clearing your bowel, or feel you are unable to completely empty your bowel.

This Care Pathway will help you understand your treatment options available, and track the management plan for your bowel problems.

Dr Firstname Lastname

Specialty
Qualifications
Address Line 1
Address Line 2
Tel:
Fax:
Email:
Website:

Medical History
Physical Exam

NOTES:
Include information on when patient should see symptom improvement and when to re-evaluate for advanced therapies.

